SUBJECT: Magee-Stovall High Impact Emerging Professional Speaker Award 2006
Goes To Arkansan Willie Johnson

Seventh Annual “Magee-Stovall High Impact Emerging Professional Speaker Award” 2006 Goes To Arkansan Willie Johnson!

Tulsa, OK – Each year professional speakers Jeffrey Magee (www.JeffreyMagee.com) and www.ThePerformanceMagazine.com) and Jim Stovall (www.JimStovall.com and www.Narrativetv.com) recognize an emerging professional speaker with the “Magee-Stovall High Impact Emerging Professional Speaker Award”.

This year the recipient is Mr. Willie Johnson, (<http://www.williejay.com/about.html>) of Lowell, Arkansas. Willie is a Corporate Trainer for the J.B. Hunt Transportation Services firm and in his personal business he is known as “The Ambassador of Potentiality” and works with people to attain higher levels of personal professional success through greater self esteem, self belief, and self actions.

The Award provides the recipient with a year long connection of:

1. Unlimited access to their brain-bank
2. Unlimited career coaching
3. Access to their Network/Contacts
4. Access to their teams/staffs/resources
5. A complete copy of each of their libraries of books, audios, and videos
6. And a CASH Stipend

The intent of the Award is to assist other aspiring professionals within the National Speakers Association industry to attain greater levels of success and impact, by shortening their learning curves and enhancing their impact upon others from their unique gifts.

Jeff and Jim are Professional level speakers of the National Speakers Association Oklahoma Chapter (<http://www.nsaoklahoma.org/>) and speak regularly to national and international audiences.
